

Please do not allow media moguls to foist their personal political preferences on an unsuspecting public in the guise of documentaries or movies that clearly take a partisan stance. Equal time should be given to the opposing candidate.